

Queen of the Oyster Festival 2009

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

1. The competition is open to all entrants 16 years of age and over, married or single, male or female;
2. Entrants must have a business or organization as their sponsor;
3. Entry fee is $155 per candidate;
4. To be eligible to win the major prizes in the Queen of the Festival & Miss Charity Queen, candidates must raise a minimum of $500 for the nominated charity Cancer Council NSW 'Pink Ribbon Events';
5. The Brisbane Water Oyster Festival Queen competition is not a beauty pageant. The judging is based on deportment, presentation, personality, community involvement and fundraising ability;
6. The title of Queen of the Oyster Festival 2009 will go to the entrant who achieved the highest score based on the above criteria;
7. The title of the Miss Charity Queen will go to the entrant who raised the most funds for Cancer Council NSW 'Pink Ribbon Events';
8. There are two judging events on separate dates throughout the month of October. One is a private interview before an independent panel of three judges and the second is at an event such as a fashion parade or social event;
9. The organizing committee will assist entrants with fundraising ideas, media and opportunities;
10. All entrants will be required to attend the Oyster Festival Ball as our guests on Friday 6th November at the Ettalong Beach Club where the Queen of the Oyster Festival & Miss Charity Queen will be crowned;
11. The Brisbane Water Oyster Festival is on the Sunday 8th November. We ask that all entrants attend to be presented on the main stage at midday;
12. We also ask the 2009 Queen and Miss Charity Queen to attend the Oyster Festival Ball in November 2010 as our guests for the crowning of the queens;
13. Any personal information, including contact details and information provided by the entrant is strictly confidential and will not be used without the express permission of the entrant;
